

General Education Articulation Agreement between

Rosedale Bible College and Bluffton University

1. Bluffton University assures the acceptance of Rosedale Bible College associate degree graduates.
2. Beginning with the Rosedale Bible College class of 2008, Bluffton University accepts the associate degree as fulfilling lower level general education requirements (i.e. 100 and 200 level course work) with the exception of Bluffton University natural science requirements. These degrees may also meet some program requirements depending on the major. All other competencies, prerequisites and upper level general education requirements must be met on the same basis as by any other Bluffton University student.
3. Rosedale Bible College and Bluffton University will include information about this agreement in their catalogs.
4. Both institutions will review this agreement periodically and either may terminate these arrangements with a notice of at least two years.
